

SAILING SYNERGY

Teams that can adapt quickly to change will be more successful on the water and in the office. Sailing is a strong metaphor for teams as they practice their leadership and team skills - testing the winds, using power, tacking, and getting the team back on track.

How Does It Work?

Sailing Synergy provides an experience with ever-changing natural conditions. Each member of the team will have changing roles throughout the day. This one-day program will cover the basic language and mechanics of sailing, helming a sailboat, and the fundamentals of sail trim, boat handling and racing. We will begin the program with a facilitated discussion and end the program with a group debriefing discussing how the experience can be tied back to work.

How Do Participants Benefit?

- Experience team dynamics in the midst of change
- Build collaboration
- Strengthen effective communication
